Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

UMASS LOWELL: Off to its best start in the program's history at 20-3, UMass Lowell had an 11-game winning streak halted with Thursday's 7-3 setback at Bentley. However, the River Hawks rebounded with four straight over Saint Anselm Friday and Sunday and face a critical test over the next 10 days with two against Southern Connecticut, three against Southern New Hampshire and two following with Franklin Pierce. Junior Peter Nickerson improved to 4-0 Friday in UML's 6-1 win over Saint Anselm. Freshman Tim Keene batted 9 for 16 (.563) last week while junior Patrick Wilson went 10 for 23 (.435) in a 5-1 week...STONEHILL: In taking two out of three over the weekend from 11th-ranked Franklin Pierce, Stonehill snapped a 13-game winless streak against the Ravens that dated back to April 2002 and posted its first triumph over a ranked opponent since last April. Ten of Stonehill's 11 victories to date have come in region, as the Skyhawks sport a 10-4 mark against NCAA Northeast Regional foes. Senior P Billy Sittig (West Roxbury, Mass.) tied the school career strikeouts record by fanning three on Saturday at Franklin Pierce, as he currently shares the record with former Stonehill standout Mark Henry '03 at 237...BRYANT: Bryant played back-to-back 13 inning games on Thursday and Saturday winning them both allowing just one run in each game. The Bulldogs held opponents to just four runs, two of them earned in their last four games. They have also only allowed 26 hits in the last 44 innings...SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT: Junior RHP Josh Terletzky has won his last four starts since losing to nationally-ranked Armstrong Atlantic in February. He has an ERA of 1.59 during his winning streak. Senior LHP Jeff Farrell is averaging 1.40 walks per nine innings. Four of the Owls' five starting pitchers have allowed less hits than innings pitched. Junior C Jim McLaughlin hit .500 last week while the rest of his team hit .192. McLaughlin has raised his batting average 77 points in his last three games (.244 to .321). The Owls struck out 18 times in being no hit on March 28, but only eight times combined in four games since. Six of Southern's eight losses have come to nationally-ranked teams...SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: The Penmen were ranked fourth in New England by the NEIBA and ninth in the Northeast by the NCBWA last week. SNHU has already posted five shutouts this season. The record for shutouts in a season is six set during the 1994 season...FRANKLIN PIERCE: Franklin Pierce, ranked 11th in last week's Collegiate Baseball magazine poll, played error-free in five games last week (184 chances). Junior righthander Daniel Fournier (Worcester, Mass.) started the week for the Ravens in fine fashion, tossing the fourth no-hitter in program history (first since 2002) with a career-best 18 strikeouts. The no-hitter was the Ravens first in Northeast-10 play and first against an NCAA Division II opponent. Fournier's 18 strikeouts were two shy of Justin Blood's school-record of 20 set in 2001. Junior Garrett Olson (Norway, Maine) saw his team-leading 16-game hitting streak halted on Sunday. Senior Elliott Shea (Jaffrey, N.H.) has joined former All-American Eric Cavers atop the program's career stolen base list with 57 thefts. Franklin Pierce has dropped back-to-back games for the first time this season after losing the last two games of its three-game series with Stonehill. After an off day on Monday, the Ravens will look to rebound with eight games over the remaining six days this week...BENTLEY: Junior first baseman Tom Haugh (Andover, Mass.) recorded his 100th career hit, becoming the fourth member of this year's team to have reached the century mark. Senior Bill Dacier (Medway, Mass.), who has already set a career-best for hits in a season (28), owns a nine-game hitting streak...AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: The 12 runs AIC scored in a game twice last week is the highest single-game output since a 12-9 win over Bentley on April 18, 2004. The 12-run margin of victory in the Yellow Jackets' 12-0 shutout of Bridgeport in the largest since a 19-6 win over Saint Anselm on April 21, 2001. Terry Loh (Milford, Conn.) has not allowed a run in his last 17 innings of work...ASSUMPTION: Senior relief pitcher Nick Andrade (East Providence, RI/East Providence) has been stellar in the bullpen for the Greyhounds this season. In 11.2 innings pitched, he has given up only one earned run (0.77 ERA), six hits, nine strike outs, and three walks while opposing batters are hitting just .146 off him. Freshman outfielder Steve Scannell (Worcester, MA/Burncoat) had his second four-hit game this season at Pace. He went 4-for-4 with three runs scored, two stolen bases, and a double...
