Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

STONEHILL: Stonehill, winners of seven straight and nine of its last 10 outings, has posted a 17-5 (.773) mark in NCAA Northeast Regional play to date. Since April 1st, the Skyhawks have posted a 1.19 team earned run average as a staff, going 9-1 and allowing just 62 hits and 12 earned runs in 91 innings with 66 strikeouts. Last Tuesday's shutout win over Bryant was Stonehill's third straight blanking, as the Skyhawks had allowed just one run over a 36-inning stretch before last Wednesday's contest with the Bulldogs. Senior P Brian Nelson (Greenville, R.I.) saw his consecutive scoreless innings streak end at 20 straight in Saturday's first game triumph at Pace, while fellow senior P Billy Sittig (West Roxbury, Mass.) recorded his 250th career strikeout in Wednesday's win at Bryant...UMASS LOWELL: Junior 1B Patrick Wilson (Dracut, MA) extended his hitting streak to 25 games in this week's 3-1 week. Wilson has hit safely in all but one game this season. Junior LF Steve Paddock (Milford, MA) is currently nursing an eight-game hitting streak...FRANKLIN PIERCE: The Ravens, ranked 22nd in last week's Collegiate Baseball poll and 18th in the NCBWA's Top 25, have won four-straight and nine of ten. Senior Tyler Cummings (South Paris, Maine) became Franklin Pierce's career victory leader when he notched his 21st career win on Monday at Merrimack. Senior Elliott Shea (Jaffrey, N.H.) matched the program's single-game hit record with five at Merrimack on Monday, including a program-record four doubles in the win. Junior Arric Mather (Danville, N.H.) struck out a career-best 14 Merrimack batters on Wednesday. Senior Mike Chambers (Londonderry, N.H.) became the fourth member of the program's 200-hit club on Saturday, senior Randy Fenton (Worcester, Mass.) became the 14th player in program history with 100 career hits at Bentley on Saturday...SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT: Southern Connecticut is 20-3 against regional opponents, including 11-0 in non-conference/in-region games. Southern has won 20+ games for the sixth consecutive season. Junior 1B Nick Czekaj, the Owls' third-leading hitter at .357, has missed his team's last three games after suffering an ankle injury while trying to avoid a tag on 4/9. Southern started three different first-basemen last week -- reserve Mo Davidson, regular C/DH Joe Pagan, and regular 3B Jose Ortiz. Jose Ortiz is hitting .560 (14-25) during his current six-game hitting streak with five multiple hit games, beginning with a 5-for-5 performance in Game 2 vs. UML on 4/6. Freshman SS Michael Diaz had a nine-game hitting streak snapped by Assumption on Wednesday. He is hitting .361 in his last 11 games...PACE: Pace senior Matt Reilly (Denville, NJ/Morris Knolls) became the career leader in strikeouts at Pace University with a 6th inning K against Stonehill on Saturday, April 15, 2006. Reilly enter the game in 3rd place all-time, trailing Willie Espinal's (1986-89) 166 K's, with 161. With a 12-strikeout performance against Stonehill, Reilly currently sits in 1st place with 173 career strikeouts. Teammate David Qualben (Brooklyn, NY/Xavier) is currently 3rd all-time with 162 career strikeouts. Qualben struck out eight against Adelphi on Friday, April 14, 2006...SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: The Penmen have already posted 17 wins this season (17-13), which ranks as the most wins in a season since 1998 and leaves the team just five wins shy of establishing a new program-record for wins in a season. The 1994 team posted a record 21 wins (21-16)...BENTLEY: When Bentley posted back-to-back shutouts vs. Merrimack Apr. 9 and Pace on Tuesday, it marked the first time since 1991 that Falcon pitchers had blanked consecutive opponents...ASSUMPTION: Assumption is 2-1 in their newly remodeled H.L. Rocheleau Field and will have four games this week at home to try and improve that mark. Freshman pitcher/third baseman Jeff Barbale (Charlton, MA/St. Peter-Marian) hit a three-run inside-the-park homerun last Monday against Saint Rose. The home run, the first since Eric Tridenti '01 (North Andover, MA) smacked one at Saint

Anselm (April 4, 1998), broke a 1-1 deadlock in the 8th inning...SAINT ROSE: Saint Rose has won three straight for the first time this season. Sophomore right-hander Jeremiah St. Louis (Tupper Lake, NY) is holding opposing hitters to a .207 batting average. He has given up only nine extra-base hits. Freshman right-hander Brendon Malkowski (Guilderland, NY/Guilderland) has fanned 50 and walked only 15 throughout 49.2 innings of work. Freshman center fielder Daniel Felitte (Delmar, NY) owns an 11-game hit streak, the longest for a Saint Rose player this season. He has batted .405 (15-for-37) with a .563 ob% during that stretch. Senior infielder Nick Panza (Albany, NY) is batting .410 (16-for-39) with nine RBI, 11 stolen bases and a .558 ob% throughout his last 12 games...
