Notes:

Southern Connecticut: The Owls will make their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II World Series later this week, meeting the University of North Florida on Sunday in an opening round game. In wins over Adelphi (6-1), UMass Lowell (10-3) and host Franklin Pierce (1-0), Coach Tim Shea's team batted .320 and had a 1.00 ERA and lowered their Division II-leading ERA to 1.95. Southern heads to the World Series with all four starting pitchers under 2.00 in ERA. Freshman Justin Cox (4-2, 0.91 in 69 innings) has led the nation and is followed closely by junior Matt Hennessey (7-2, 1.36 in 86 and 1/3 innings), junior Joe Vingo (4-1, 1.60 in 45 innings) and junior Jeff Farrell (7-1, 1.90 in 66 and 1/3 innings).

Franklin Pierce: Franklin Pierce made its second NCAA Tournament appearance over three years as it hosted the NCAA Northeast Regional for the first time. The Ravens matched the program record with 32 wins, marking the third-straight season they have won 32 times. Under Head Coach Jayson King, Franklin Pierce has set or matched the program record for wins in each of his seven seasons at the helm. Junior Mike Chambers (Londonderry, N.H.) registered his 18th double of the season on Saturday, breaking the program record of 17 set by former teammate Eric Cavers in 2003. Chambers' 44 career doubles is tied with former teammate Dante Blacarte for first in program history. Chambers and junior Shawn Hayes (Charlton, Mass.) both matched a school record by homering twice in games on Friday. Hayes hit two to lead the Ravens past Adelphi, before Chambers homered twice against UMass Lowell. Junior Elliott Shea (Jaffrey, N.H.) also matched a record with three doubles against UMass Lowell on Friday. Sophomore Vinny Pennell (Spencer, Mass.) finished the season with 24 steals, breaking Shea's single-season record of 23 set in 2004.

UMass Lowell: UMass Lowell enjoyed its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance in school history and eighth bid in the last nine seasons. UML senior C Miles Page and freshman CF Tim Manton were each named to the Northeast Regional All-Tournament Team. Manton hit 9 for 15 (.600) five runs and two RBI while Page went 3 for 14 with three RBI and a home run. Peter Nickerson and Ronnie Nelson were among several River Hawks who received postseason honors this weekend as both were named to the first team of the ABCA Rawlings Northeast All-Region Team and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) All-Northeast Region Team. Also cited to the ABCA-Rawlings Team were Page and Nate Liebenow, named to the second team. Page was also a first team member of the NCBWA Team.
