Weekly Notes:

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: The Yellow Jackets extended their school-record winning streak to 14 games and tied the school-record for consecutive wins to open a season, eight, which was set in 1975 after beating Assumption 43-24. AIC is now 6-0 in the NE-10, which clinches at least a share of the conference title. The Yellow Jackets last won a conference championship in 2000 when they won the EFC Championship Game.

ASSUMPTION: Joey Fabiano caught seven passes for 104 yards and now has 45 this season for 425 yards. His career totals are now 106 receptions (tied for third in school history) for 1,170 (seventh in school history). Matt Sidebottom believed to be the first offensive lineman in Northeast-10 history to have two receptions in one game. Sidebottom, caught a pass that had been deflected at the line of scrimmage, and then scored on a tackle-eligible play of 10 yards.

BENTLEY: Senior John Studley moved into fourth on Bentley's all-time receiving yards list with his fourth 100-yard game of the season boosting his total to 1,686.

SAINT ANSELM: In the game against Bentley on Saturday, freshman quarterback Marc Wilson has now surpassed the 100-yard mark in rushing five times this season, tying the Saint Anselm single-season record. He now also has 216 rushing attempts this season, shattering the previous record of 193 and he still has two games remaining. Senior Rob Paradis had two interceptions which tied a Saint Anselm single-game record. As a team, the Hawks forced seven Bentley turnovers, a Saint Anselm single-game record for turnovers forced.
