NORTHEAST-10 CHAMPIONSHIP MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER

Nicole Murphy, Bentley (Sr., M, Dedham, Mass.) - Murphy was selected this year's Most Valuable Player of the Northeast-10 Field Hockey Championship as she helped Bentley win back-to-back titles and the teams ninth in 14 years. Murphy was an essential part to the Falcons' offense and defense at the midfield position. She also assisted on Nicole Dion's eventual game-winning goal in the championship final versus Stonehill.

Back-To-Back: Bentley Wins 2009 Northeast-10 Field Hockey Championship

Easton, Mass. - The Bentley University field hockey team won its second straight Northeast-10 Championship with a 2-1 victory over Stonehill College Sunday afternoon at W.B. Mason Stadium on the campus of Stonehill College.

Freshman Nicole Dion (Lunenburg, Mass.) scored the eventual game-winning goal midway through the first half on a tip in from the far post for the Falcons. Senior Nicole Murphy (Deham, Mass.) and sophomore Stephanie Sideris (Watertown, Mass.) assisted on the goal.

Bentley jumped out to the early lead when senior Allison St. Jean (Lebanon, Maine) knocked in her eighth goal of the season off a scramble in front of the net in the 11th minute.

The Falcons doubled their lead in the 20th minute when Dion scored her ninth goal of the season.

In the second half Stonehill's offense piled on the shots as the Skyhawks outshot the Falcons 6-0 in the half. In the 54th minute, junior Lindsay Pinkham (Skowhegan, Maine) received a pass from senior Stephanie Kott (Rutland, Mass.) and scored her fifth goal of the season to cut the Bentley lead in half, 2-1.

The Bentley defense kept the Stonehill offense in check as they kept the Skyhawks off the scoreboard for the remainder of the game to secure the 2-1 victory.

Bentley senior goalkeeper Alyssa Sliney (Brewster, Mass.) made five saves in net and earned All-Championship honors. Joining Sliney on the All-Championship team is Sideris and the champion-ship's most outstanding player, Murphy.

Stonehill senior Jackie Ladino (North Dartmouth, Mass.) and Kott were also named to the All-Championship team.

The remaining members of the All-Championship team include, Adelphi's Danielle DeMola, UMass Lowell's Liz Day and Molly Clay, Merrimack's Kerri Bergquist and Katie Zubkus and Southern Connecticut's Lauren Zarrella.

Bentley improves to 16-4 overall, while Stonehill is now 17-4.

With 16 member institutions the Northeast-10 shares the distinction of being the largest Division II conference in the country along with the PSAC and WVIAC. Its 23 championship sports provide athletic opportunities for over 5,500 student-athletes, the largest such program of any Division II conference.

2009 FIELD HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP

2009 NORTHEAST-10 FIELD HOCKEY WEEKLY INFORMATION

ADELPHI: The Panthers saw their season come to an end with a 2-1 loss in the quarterfinals against Merrimack. Freshman Emilee Rahner scored her first collegiate goal in the loss. The Panthers ended the season with a 12-8 overall record.

BENTLEY: Despite being outshot 29-15 and out-cornered 32-11, Bentley successfully defended its Northeast-10 playoff title and captured its ninth Northeast-10 tournament championship in 14 years by avenging three of its four regular season losses (one to UMass-Lowell, two to Stonehill). Senior midfielder Nicole Murphy (Dedham, Mass.) was selected as the Most Outstanding Player and the All-Tournament team also included senior goalie Alyssa Sliney (Brewster, Mass.) and sophomore midfielder Stephanie Sideris (Watertown, Mass.). Sliney, on Friday night, was named the NE-10 Goalie of the Year, becoming the first three-time recipient of the award. Nicole Dion (Lunenburg, Mass.) became the third Bentley player in four years to win or share the NE-10 Freshman of the Year award, and the eighth Falcon to receive the honor since 1996. Bentley has earned a berth in the NCAA Division II Field Hockey Championships for the sixth straight season and the 10th time in the last 11 years. In the opening round on Nov. 7, the Falcons will host UMass-Lowell, marking the fourth straight year that the two conference rivals will meet in the NCAA tournament. Bentley's 12 appearances in the NCAA Division II tournament is second only to Bloomsburg University's 18.

UMASS LOWELL: The #3 River Hawks began the week with a 4-1 victory over #6 Southern Connecticut in the first round of the Northeast-10 Tournament on Wednesday, behind a two-goal performance by junior forward Katie Enaire (Amesbury, Mass.). Fellow forwards Jaci Moulton (Baldwinville, Mass.) and Sammy Macy (Tewksbury, Mass.) each added a goal and an assist on the afternoon, as well. They then met #2 Bentley in Easton, Mass. on Saturday and were unable to score in the game, falling by a narrow 1-0 margin and missing the NE-10 Championship game for the first time in seven years. On Friday, five members of the UMass Lowell field hockey team took home conference honors at the NE-10 banquet, including Macy's Player of the Year accolades. She was joined on the NE-10 All-Conference First Team by defender Laura Sullivan (Norwood, Mass.) and Enaire, while defender Ashley Smith (Killingworth, Conn.) and midfielder Molly Clay (Rockport, Mass.) were named to the Second Team.

MERRIMACK: Following a program-record 12 wins in the regular season (13 overall), the Merrimack field hockey Warriors achieved another first when they advanced to the semifinals of the Northeast-10 tournament after hosting a quarterfinal round. With the 2-1 quarterfinal win over Adelphi, Merrimack also beat a team three times in one season for the first in school history. In just her second year, Head Coach Anne Rounce led the Warriors to eight more wins than the previous year--the largest turnaround in program history as well.

SAINT MICHAEL'S: Head coach Carla Hesler was inducted into New Agenda: Northeast Women's Hall of Fame on Sunday. The primary criteria for election are that the candidate: contributes to girls' and women's sport beyond her professional responsibilities; has participated in activities which promote girls and women in sport; and has been active for at least 15 years. Hesler is the second-winningest coach in Saint Michael's field hockey history, amassing a 118-90 record in her 11 seasons as head coach. She is currently nine wins away from matching the program record. Also, senior Kaitlin Koffink was selected for the NE-10 Field Hockey Second Team, it was announced last week, having led her team in six goals and 14 points and starting in all 18 contests in her 2009 season.

STONEHILL: Stonehill was ranked 3rd for the second-straight week in the Kookaburra/NFHCA Division II poll last week and first in the NCAA II North Region rankings for the fifth-straight week. The Skyhawks reached the NE-10 Championship for the third time in program history. Senior All-American Jackie Ladino's (North Dartmouth, Mass.) goal against Merrimack in Saturday's NE-10 semifinal gives her 97 career points - good for sole possession of third on Stonehill's all-time list. Senior back Stephanie Kott (Rutland, Mass.) is the second Stonehill player to earn NE-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining Libby Hannah who earned the award in 2003. Head Coach Shelly Morris was voted the NE-10 Coach of the Year by her peers and is the second Stonehill coach to earn the award, joining Sheila Campbell who won the award in 1998... Stonehill placed four student-athletes on the All-Conference teams. Joining Kott on the All-NE-10 first team were Ladino and classmate Claire Hourihan (East Amherst, N.Y.), while junior Lindsey Pinkham (Skowhegan, Maine) earned second team honors.
