Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

SAINT MICHAEL'S: Friday's win at Southern Maine was the 250th for Saint Michael's head coach Lou DiMasi, the only coach in the history of the program. DiMasi, in his 24th season, now has a 250-275-18 career record. Junior Jared Silver (Montreal, Quebec) and senior captain Alex Watts (Cheshire, CT) each scored shorthanded goals over the weekend for the Purple Knights, who completed the weekend with a win and a tie...SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: Sophomore forward Brandon Hammermeister (Calgary, Alberta) has recorded a point in each of SNHU's first four games and has totaled a team-high 10 points. He recorded his first career hat trick in SNHU's 10-0 win over Western New England. Senior Martin Stehl (Goldbar, WA) recorded his first career shutout in the win over WNEC. Sophomore Dominic DiMarzo (East Boston, MA) has scored two goals in each of SNHU's last three games.
