Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: The Penmen extend their home unbeaten streak to 10 games (8-0-2) following a 6-1 victory over Stonehill Wednesday. SNHU outscored the Skyhawks 6-0 and outshot the Skyhawks 30-10 over the final two periods. Senior GK Martin Stehl (Goldbar, WA) has limited the opposition to one goal or less in three-straight and four of his last five starts. He leads the league in goals against average (1.48), save percentage (.946) and winning percentage (4-0-1). Senior Chris White (Naperville, IL) registered his 50th career assist during the win over Stonehill...SAINT MICHAEL'S: On Tuesday, the Purple Knights were defeated by Norwich University by a final score of 9-3. With the loss, Saint Michael's is now 0-21 in the all-time series with their in-state rival. The team then defeated Franklin Pierce College on Saturday, putting an end to a three game winless skid. Junior Jared Silver (Montreal, Quebec) added to his team scoring lead, tallying two shorthanded goals, including the game winner, and also assisted on three others. With a goal on Saturday, senior co-captain Alex Watts (Cheshire, CT) has earned a point in all but one of the team's eight games this season, and currently stands just two points shy of 100 for his career...STONEHILL: The kids are alright for Stonehill, as the freshman class accounted for eight of the Skyhawks' nine points in Saturday's non-league victory at Assumption. The Class of 2009 has amassed nearly one third of Stonehill's point total to date, collecting 25 of the Skyhawks' 77 points through 10 games.
