Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

SAINT ANSELM: Junior Brian Dobler tallied his 50th career point on Friday against St. Michael's. Friday's 8-1 win marked the third-highest margin of victory for the Hawks this season. 15 different players notched at least one point in the win- the most this season. Now 3-0 in the conference, the Hawks have outscored NE-10 opponents 24-3...SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE:The Penmen snapped a five-game losing streak following a 4-4 OT tie at Salve Regina Saturday. Sophomore Evan Williams (Gilford, NH) scored two goals and recorded his first career multiple-goal game. Sophomore Brandon Hammermeister (Calgary, Alberta) scored with 11 seconds to play in regulation to force OT. He has now totaled 50 points (28 G, 22 A) in 43 career games...STONEHILL: Stonehill's current six-game winning streak is its longest such skein in 16 years, as the Skyhawks last won six straight in January 1990. Stonehill has outscored its six opponents by a 35-13 margin during the streak, holding three of those squads to two or fewer goals. Stonehill has already surpassed its entire win total of last season with nine triumphs to date. Tuesday's victory over Wentworth was Stonehill's first over the Leopards since November 1999, a span of six games. Freshman F Brendan O'Brien (Braintree, MA) netted four points in Saturday's win at Suffolk and has recorded seven multiple-point performances this season. Junior G Josh Green (Mendon, MA) made a career-high 46 saves in Tuesday's win over Wentworth and stands at a perfect 6-0 in the Skyhawk net to date. The cumulative record of the Stonehill winter sports squads stands at 42-9 (.824), as ice hockey (9-6) is joined by women's basketball (18-2) and men's basketball (15-4) in comprising that mark...SAINT MICHAEL'S: The Purple Knights were defeated by Saint Anselm College on Friday, 8-1, who they haven't beaten since March 3, 2004 in the NE-10 Championship. On Saturday, Saint Michael's tied 11th ranked New England College, 2-2, a team it had previously been winless against in the five game all-time series. Jared Silver (Montreal, Quebec) scored a goal and an assist against the Pilgrims after failing to contribute a point in Friday's loss, which put an end to his nine game points streak. The junior forward leads the league in both overall scoring, with 32 points and in assists, with 26...ASSUMPTION: Assumption will host four of their final seven games at Buffone Rink, start with Tuesday night's tilt with Johnson and Wales. Senior forward Bobby Fanciullo (Medford, MA/Arlington Catholic) extended his point streak to five straight games (G, 7 A) and six of his last seven games overall (2 G, 8 A) with two assists versus Franklin Pierce last Saturday.
