Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Bentley has amassed 20 wins for just the second time in the program's history and is one victory shy of the school record. Freshman Christine D'Amico (Shrewsbury, Mass.) has hit safely in 19 straight games, breaking the record set by teammate Alex Hitchcock (Abington, Mass.) two years ago. Senior Leigh Cavanaugh (Cheshire, Conn.) broke the school record for career games, with her total currently at 163. She needs six AB to break that career mark as well, and is also number one in school history in putouts. Briana Kneeland (Winthrop, Mass.) became the third Bentley player this year to reach the century mark in career hits.

UMASS LOWELL: Senior Laurie Tanguay reached a pair of milestones over the weekend. After setting UML's career home run record with her 18th in a 10-0 win at Saint Michael's on Apr. 8, Tanguay drove in the 125th and 126th RBI of her career in Saturday's 4-1 win over Saint Rose to eclipse the all-time mark of 125 set by former standout Donna Mills (1993-96). Tanguay also tied the single season RBI record with her 42nd, also in the 4-1 win over Saint Rose.

PACE: Junior outfielder Christina Pane set the school record for hits in one season, connecting on her 68th hit of the season in a game two win over Bentley. The record was previously held by Tess Bair, who set the record in 2003.

SAINT ROSE: Junior right-hander Tracy Chesebrough established a single-season school record with 215 strikeouts so far this year. She has registered double-digit strikeout totals in eight straight outings and in 14 of her 21 appearances throughout the season.

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT: Senior pitcher Jessica Dempsey has not surrendered an earned run in her last 36.2 innings of work. The streak spans nine appearances. With a win in game one of a doubleheader at Saint Anselm on Saturday, Owl's Head Coach Lisa Barbaro earned the 100th victory of her four-year SCSU coaching career.

SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: Juniors Ashley Bernstein (Stoughton, MA) and Karissa Bettencourt (Norton, MA) each recorded their 100th career hit in Sunday's first game against Stonehill.

STONEHILL: Courtney Young (Danvers, Mass.) blasted her 17th career homerun, moving her into first place on the school's all-time list. The homer was also her seventh of the season, tying her own single season mark set in 2006. Danielle Mason (Salisbury, Mass.) won her 28th career game on Sunday, moving into a tie for third on the school's all-time list for wins. Stonehill is poised to make its first postseason tournament appearance since 1996. The 23 wins for the Skyhawks are the most in a single season under head coach Danielle Delude.
