Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: The six-year reign as champion for the Bentley women at the New England Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Association championships came to an end, but it was still quite a weekend for the Falcons. Bentley swimmers won nine of 25 events, set school records a total of 17 times in 13 different events and posted five B-cut times. Senior Liza Connolly and freshman Anne Kaduboski each broke school records in all seven events in which they competed (three individual, four relays).

BRYANT: The Bryant women's swim team placed third out of 21 teams competing at the New England Championships over the weekend. Sophomore Jessica Looney was named the Swimmer of the Meet after recording three first place finishes including a pool record time of 2:09.98 in the 200 backstroke Saturday.
