Weekly Notes: UMASS LOWELL: Senior Nicole Plante (North Adams, MA) and two UMass Lowell relay teams earned All-American honors over the weekend at the NCAA Championship. Plante tied the school record for All-American honors by a female athlete in a career as she earned her sixth and seventh honors over the weekend. Plante placed second in the 5,000 meters in 16:57.48 and ran the mile (4:59) on UML's distance medley relay team, which took seventh, despite a dropped baton, in 11:58.78, the second-fastest time in UML history. Plante tied the record of seven; originally set by former sprinter/jumper Jill Croft (1998-2002)...Plante was one of five UMass Lowell athletes who added to their lists of All-America titles. Seniors Clint Cooper (Raynham, MA) (4X400) and Toni-Marie Henry (Springfield, MA) (DMR) earned the honors for the fourth time in their careers while sophomore Andrew Grange (Methuen) and senior Erick Colon (Methuen, MA) both earned accolades for the second time as members of the 4X400 team. Three UML athletes were named All-Americans for the first time, including freshman Doug Caves (Oxford, MA) in the 4X400, sophomore Christina DaLomba (Marstons Mills, MA) in the DMR, and freshman Haley Catarius (Marshfield, MA) in the DMR...UMass Lowell opens the outdoor season Friday and Saturday in the UNC-Charlotte 49er Classic. STONEHILL: The Skyhawk men finished tied for 17th in the final team standings at the 2007 NCAA Division II Championships over the weekend at the Reggie Lewis Center, as junior Keith Gill (Brockton, Mass.) became the first three-sport All-America performer in school history with a fifth place finish in the mile. Sophomore Torrey Price (Sleepy Hollow, N.Y.) joined Gill as Stonehill's first two individual indoor All-America performers by placing sixth in the 60 meters, while the men's distance medley relay team of seniors Brandon Beloin (Danielson, Conn.) and Derek Hebert (Rockland, Mass.), along with juniors Dickie Gerry (Bow, N.H.) and David Metzger (Ellington, Conn.), earned All-America honors with an eighth place time of 10:04.64 in the event.
