Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Alyssa Ritchie became just the fifth player in Northeast-10 history to record 300 points in Bentley's win over American International on Thursday. The milestone came when she scored her third goal of the game 49 seconds into the second half. Through Sunday's game, she has 309 points (185 g, 124 a) and is 18 points away from breaking the conference career scoring record.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Franklin Pierce has set a new single-season record after posting its sixth win of the season at Southern Connecticut State on Saturday. The Ravens, who have won three-straight games for the first time in program history, surpassed the previous record of five wins set in 2003. Sophomore Lauren Stille matched the program's single-game record for the second time this season (third career) with her three assists at Norwich on Monday, setting a new program record with 26 career assists. Stille also moved into second place on the program's career goals list with 122. Sophomore Jordan Baillargeon enters the week just three points shy of becoming just the fifth player in program history and third this season to reach the 100 career point mark. Baillargeon's 13 assists this season are just one shy of the program's single-season record of 14 set by Stille last year.

NEW HAVEN: Senior Brigid Brady scored her 200th career goal in a game against Saint Michael's. She currently owns the record at UNH with 207 goals in her career.

STONEHILL: Last week, senior Michelle Kelly became the fourth player in Stonehill history to record 300 points in a career. She is also two assists shy of becoming the fifth player in NCAA history with 200 goals and 100 assists in a career.
