Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Midfielder Alyssa Ritchie finished her record breaking career on Tuesday against Merrimack. In that game, she tied the Northeast-10 career scoring record of 326 points. She also broke her own program single-season scoring record with 93 points. Earlier in the season, she broke teammate Jaclyn Griffin's single-season goals record of 50, and finished with 66. She finishes her career as Bentley's all-time leader in goals (198), assists (128) and points (326).

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Franklin Pierce made just its second postseason appearance in program history and first since 2003. The Ravens set a program record with seven wins. Sophomore Lauren Stille is just the second Raven in program history to earn first team All-Conference honors, joining Courtney Boardman who was a first team selection as a freshman in 2003. Stille ends her season with 64 goals, second only in program history to her record total of 73 set during her freshman year, and she will head into her junior season just 14 shy of Boardman's career mark of 151 goals. Stille, who holds the program's career assist mark with 27, is now just nine points shy of Boardman's career record of 173. Freshman Jillian Bolduc (Atkinson, N.H.) finished her first collegiate season with 218 saves - the third-highest single-season total in program history.

SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: SNHU's senior class graduates holding a multitude of career school record. Libby Parent is the Penmen's all-time leader in goals (169) and points (248), while Jennifer Parro (Ipswich, Mass.) holds the career record for assists (134). Julie Kraus (Derry, N.H.) is SNHU's all-time leader in ground balls (212), draw controls (147) and caused turnovers (126). All three played in a school-record 63 games.
