Northeast-10 Weekly Notes:

STONEHILL: Stonehill, 26-4 over the last two seasons combined, is enjoying its longest winning streak in 14 years in claiming 11 straight triumphs dating back to March 8th, the third longest win skein in school history and best since the 1992 squad posted 15 straight victories en route to the league title...Stonehill is a combined 81-9 in individual conference singles and doubles play to date, including a pair of 10-0 singles marks by senior Anna Walsh (Dennis, Mass.) and sophomore Daniella Granato (Concord, Mass.)...The Skyhawks were ranked seventh in last week's ITA Northeast rankings and 10th in the NCAA East Regional poll...Stonehill heads to Smithfield on Tuesday for a clash for first place in the league standings with Bryant, the first meeting between the two teams since last year's Northeast-10 championship match... BRYANT: The Bryant women's tennis team stayed undefeated in conference play this week with a 9-0 win over Bentley and an 8-1 win over Southern New Hampshire Sunday. Sacha Solomon, Alex Spence, Annette Jervasi are all undefeated at 10-0 this year while Lauren Mullen is 7-0 at No. 6 singles. Bryant's match with Stonehill will be made up on Tuesday... SAINT MICHAEL'S: The Purple Knights play their final regular-season contest on Wednesday versus Pace, which marks the final home match for senior captain Heidi Murphy (Norfolk, Mass.). Saint Michael's has won at least nine matches for the eighth straight season (after not doing so at all in the program's first 18 seasons), and needs one more victory for the seventh 10-win season in the last eight years... SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: The Penmen saw their three-match winning streak halted following a loss to NE-10 co-leader Bryant Sunday. She has registered a 5-3 record thus far this season.
